

Calling All Artists & Photographers May 8th, 2004

Join area and regional artists and photographers on May 8th* as they paint, photograph and document the everyday life and scenery of West Hartford during the first annual “24 hours in the Life of our Town” to help celebrate West Hartford’s sesquicentennial.

Plein air painters and photographers are invited to capture extraordinary images in West Hartford during this 24 hour period. Selected artists will then be matched with participating area merchants to exhibit and sell their work during this three week period in the merchants windows during West Hartford’s First Annual

To participate, call the West Hartford Art League at 521-3732.

Receiving day for submitting artwork is May 17 at the West Hartford Art League’s Clubhouse Gallery, 37 Buena Vista Road..

Entry forms will be available in April at WHAL, Jerrys Artarama, Artists Alternative, and the WH Public Library, or log onto our website at www.whal.org.

* May 9th rain date.
